GENERAL DUTIES OF ANNUAL HOLIDAY SITE OCCUPANTS. HOLIDAY PARK AND MARINA.

General duties of holiday park and marina annual site occupants are prescribed in the Residential Tenancies Act 1997. While "the Act" does not apply those duties to non resident occupiers, the duties are herein restated but modified where necessary to make them appropriate and applicable to both resident and non-resident occupiers. This duty statement thus forms part of any agreement between the holiday park and marina owner and any non-resident occupier.

1. Occupants' use of the site

- The occupants must use the site only for the purpose agreed with the holiday park and marina owner; and
- use the site, holiday park and marina facilities properly and ensure that their visitors do the same.
- No occupant may traverse on any other occupant's site or houseboat

2. Occupants must not use site for illegal purposes

- The occupants must not use or permit the use of the site, the dwelling, houseboat or the holiday park for any purpose that is illegal at common law or under an Act.

3. Occupants duty to pay fees

- The occupants must pay the site or marina fees and any other charges agreed with the holiday park and marina owner on the due dates and in agreed manner.

4. Security

- Park management use their best endeavors' to ensure a safe and secure environment in the park, however it is highly recommended that you take the precaution of securing all items of value in and around your van, vehicle or houseboat.

5. Quiet enjoyment - occupant's duty

- Occupants must not do anything in or near the site, marina or holiday park, or allow their visitors to the holiday park, marina or site to do anything which interferes with the privacy and peace and quiet of other occupants of the holiday park and marina, or their proper use and enjoyment of the holiday park and marina.

6. Occupants must keep site clean

- The occupants must keep the site clean and tidy; and
- maintain the site, caravan and houseboat in a manner and condition that do not detract from the general standard of the holiday park and marina as set by the holiday park and marina owner from time to time.

7. Occupants must not erect structures or excavate the land

- Occupants must not erect any structure on the site or in the holiday park and marina without the prior consent of the holiday park and marina owner. Under no circumstance are occupants allowed to alter the land by means of earth moving equipment unless they have the written permission from the land owner. Occupants will be prosecuted under the National Park and Wildlife Act 1972 act for any breach.

8. Occupants must notify owner of and compensate for damage

- If any damage other than fair wear and tear is caused to the holiday park and marina or any facilities in the holiday park or marina by the occupant or his or her visitor, the occupant must-
 - a) repair the damage; or
 - b) notify the holiday park and marina owner or caravan or houseboat owner of the damage and pay compensation for the damage to the caravan or house boat owner or the holiday park and marina owner.
- The occupants must report to the holiday park and marina owner any damage to or breakdown of communal facilities of which the occupants have knowledge.

9. Number of persons occupying site

- The occupants must not allow more than the number of persons agreed with the holiday park and marina owner to occupy the site.
- Only those occupants named in each annual holiday site and marina agreement are entitled to occupy the site overnight, together with their approved Visitors;
- If any Visitors are wishing to remain overnight on the site and they are not named as occupants in the annual holiday site and marina agreement, then notification of their name and address must be provided to the holiday park and marina owner prior to their overnight stay;
- All visitors will be invoiced for their stay either at a casual rate for an overnight accommodation or at a day rate as the case may be at whatever the holiday park and marina owner determines to be the applicable rate from time to time. If a visitor's fee remains unpaid, the occupant will be liable for such unpaid fee.
- All occupants must advise visitors of the holiday park and marina rules and ensure that visitors comply with all relevant holiday park and marina rules.
- All occupants must ensure that visitors vacate the Park by 10.00am on the day of departure unless a later time is agreed between the occupants visitor and the holiday park and marina owner.

10. Occupants must observe rules

- The occupants must observe all holiday park and marina rules made from time to time

11. Holiday park and marina owner must provide access

- The holiday park and marina owner must-
 - a) provide 24 hour vehicular access for all occupants to all sites; and
 - b) provide 24 hour access for all occupants to the holiday park and marina
 - c) provide access to the communal toilet and bathroom facilities; and
 - d) provide access, during all reasonable hours, for occupants to recreational areas, laundry and communal facilities other than toilets and bathrooms.

12. Quiet enjoyment - holiday park and marina owner's duty.

- The holiday park and marina owner must not unreasonably restrict or interfere with the occupant's privacy, peace and quiet or proper use and enjoyment of the site and the communal facilities.

13. Holiday park and marina owner must keep park and marina clean

- The holiday park and marina owner must-
 - a) keep the common areas, gardens, roadways, paths and recreation areas in the holiday park and marina clean and in a safe condition; and
 - b) arrange for the collection of occupant's garbage (general house hold waste only) from the holiday park and marina
 - c) For all other garbage such as hard waste, organic waste and refurbishment waste the occupant is responsible for the disposal of such garbage and this waste is not to be disposed of in the provided bins by the Holiday park and marina.

14. Duty of holiday park and marina owner to maintain communal areas

- The holiday park and marina owner must maintain, repair and keep clean and tidy all communal bathrooms, toilets, laundries and other communal facilities in the holiday park.
- When repairing or renovating communal facilities, the holiday park and marina owner must
 - a) minimise inconvenience and disruption to occupants; and
 - b) if necessary, provide temporary substitute facilities.

PARK and MARINA RULES

Section 185 of the Residential Tenancies Act enables the holiday park and marina owner, from time to time, to make rules relating to the use, enjoyment, control and management of the holiday park and marina. It is the holiday park and marina owner's duty to ensure that the holiday park and marina rules are reasonable and the holiday park and marina owner must take all steps to ensure that they are observed by all occupants and are enforced and interpreted consistently and fairly.

The holiday park and marina owner must give a copy of the holiday park and marina rules to the principle occupant of the site.

The following rules have been established by the holiday park and marina owner in the belief that they are reasonable and conducive to the effective management of the holiday park and marina.

If an occupant believes that a rule is unreasonable then he or she should discuss the matter with the holiday park and marina owner. There is also provision in the Act for a resident to make an application to the Victorian Civil & Administrative Tribunal should the resident consider a rule unreasonable.

A copy of the Residential Tenancies Act 1997 is available for reference by occupants at the holiday park and marinas main office and also on the holiday park and marina web site.

HOLIDAY PARK AND MARINA POLICIES

The following policies are provided for the information and benefit of occupants and their visitors.

Rent, site fees and other charges.

All accommodation and site fees are reviewed 6 monthly on the 1st of July and the 1st of January each year. The holiday park and marina owner will however honor any prices quoted at the time of a booking and any prices referred to in a current annual publication which has been supplied with a price list by the holiday park and marina owner.

Debit Collection & Recovery of unpaid money

In the event that the Occupant fails to make any payment payable pursuant to the payment terms or breaches any of the schedule obligations or agreements, the Occupant shall be in default.

The Holiday Park and Marina Owner may charge interest on all amounts not paid by the Occupant within the term for payment at a rate of 2.0% higher than the rate for the time being fixed under Section 2 of the Penalty Interest Rates Act 1983 (Vic.) as at the date of the default, per calendar month calculated from the due date and accruing daily there from until the date of payment.

If the Occupant is in default the Occupant must reimburse and indemnify the Holiday Park and Marina Owner from and against all expenses, costs and disbursements incurred by the Holiday Park and Marina Owner in pursuing the debt including all reasonably charged legal costs on a "solicitor and own client" basis and the fees charged to the Holiday Park and Marina Owner by any mercantile agency. If the Occupant fails to pay any amount by the due date, the Holiday Park and Marina Owner may at its sole discretion:

- (a) cancel all access to the Holiday Park and Marina;
- (b) change credit payment terms including require cash pre-payment for any further services provided;
- (c) provide to a credit reporting agency details of the payment default;
- (d) commence legal proceedings against the Occupant (and any guarantors) for all outstanding amounts, interest and costs;
- (e) decline to supply any services to the Occupant and terminate this and any other agreement with the Occupant; and;
- (f) exercise any other rights at law including pursuant to the Personal Property Security Act 2009.

6.4 A certificate of debt signed by a representative from the Holiday Park and Marina Owner shall be prima facie evidence and proof of money owing by the Occupant to the Holiday Park and Marina Owner at the time of the certificate.

The making and abatement of noise

As indicated in the park rules there may be circumstances where the rule with respect to the making and abatement of noise need not be strictly applied. Circumstances which come to mind might include special celebrations, group functions and entertainment. Such occasions may be planned by the holiday park and marina owner or alternatively a holiday park occupant. In the case of the latter full consultation with the holiday park and marina owner is expected such that any parameters may be mutually agreed and the privilege not subject to abuse. At all times the privacy and peace and quiet of uninvolved occupants must be considered.

Visitors

Within reason, occupant's visitors are welcome in the holiday park. Occupants must accept responsibility for their visitors. There is no charge for day visitors staying 3hrs or less. Visitors staying more than 3hrs but leaving before 10pm are required to pay a day visitor fee. Visitors staying overnight are required to pay an overnight visitors fee. It is expected that day visitors will vacate the holiday park by 10.00pm or they will be considered as overnight guests should they choose to stay beyond 10.00pm.

Park occupants who anticipate having a visitor stay overnight must, when registering their visitor in accordance with the park rules, pay the appropriate fee. The overnight visitor's fee is that which applies for additional occupants of sites or dwellings as set by the holiday park and marina owner from time to time.

Grievances

It is the caravan park owner's policy to listen to or raise grievances in private, during office hours, at the caravan park office or at another time and place by arrangement. There is an expectation that an attempt has been made to resolve any dispute between occupants, in accordance with the park rules, prior to the caravan park owner's involvement. The caravan park owner will seek to have disputes settled in a manner acceptable to all concerned but at times will be required to make a judgment with respect to a breach of duty by an occupant. In the case of a non-resident occupier a breach may result in the caravan park owner terminating any agreement to provide accommodation. A breach of duty by a resident will be dealt with in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Residential Tenancies Act.

Disciplining of Children

Children who misbehave in the playground or the holiday park and marina generally will normally be reminded of what constitutes acceptable behavior before any other action is taken. If a child continues to behave in an unacceptable manner the caravan park owner reserves the right to impose a reasonable sanction on the child. For example the child may be refused use of the playground area for a period of time. It is expected, in accordance with the holiday park and marina rules, that parents will support the holiday park and marina owner with respect to any reasonable sanction imposed.
